

I live in Indiana and do enjoy not having my phone ring all the time for things I have no interest in, I pay extra every month for unlisted phone service for that very reason and I don't want Indiana's law to change or be altered to the advantage of the people that I don't want to hear from!

Thank You

Steve A Phelps